JUDSON FAMILY

Barber, Tripp and other allied families

An account of the Judson family from its arrival from England to New England in 1634 to the present time. A complete record of births, marriages, and deaths.

Allen County Public Library
Fort Wayne, Indiana

"The attached copy of the Judson family record was sent to me by my father, Osro A. Judson, in the family Bible which he gave to me in 1940. He, in turn, got it from his father, William Augustus Judson, named in this record.

My Father tells me these records were copied from Bible records and have been in the possession of the family for many years. This is a true copy, to the best of my knowledge and belief."

PENNSYLVANIA RECOLLECTIONS

Mrs. Mary P. Tripp

The Paullina Times
Paullina, Iowa, March, 1892

A Short Sketch of My Life

Mary P. Tripp

My father, Mr. Solomon Parker was born near Hartford, Conn. Feb. 15, 1795. At the age of 15 he with a widowed Mother and eight other children, came to Kingston, six miles from Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne Co., Pa. My Mother, Margaret Courtwright, was born September 17, 1809, in Salem, 5 miles from Berwick, Lancaster Co., Pa. They were married February 17, 1820, in the house where Mother was born. The following April they moved to Aaronburg, Center County, Pa. Owing to ill health, contracted while in the War of 1812, my Father's occupation was school teaching and surveying. My Mother's death occurred April 17, 1851. I was born February 23, 1821, in Aaronburg, Center Co., Pa. I was the oldest of 10 children. In 1833, I joined the M.E. Church in Williamsport, Lycoming Co., Pa. In May 1837, the parents moved to Williams Co., Ohio, then out on the frontier. My Father died February 23, 1861, being 66 years, 10 days old.

On July 19, 1840, I was married to Mr. Solomon Barber in Williams Co., Ohio. There being no church of my own, I united with the United Brethren. March 23, 1842, my oldest son was born.

The last day of October 1843 we left Ohio and started for Illinois and arrived at Dixon, Lee Co., November 20th, a journey of 300 miles with an ox team and got through in 20 days. Arriving at my Father's I felt as if in a good place.

January 1st our first daughter came to us. (Note: This was Phoebe Lucina Barber Judson, grandmother of Rose Lyle Judson Herzer.)

In 1846 we bought our first farm at Franklin Grove and lived there 3 years. In December 1853 my husband came to Iowa and bought our farm. March 25, 1854 we got to our new home: at that time we had 6 children, 3 sons and 3 daughters. ~~From 1854 we~~ lived until the war broke out. At that time we had 5 children added to our family in Iowa, three of the five passed over and were safely housed in the haven of the West. We had 4 sons and 4 daughters, the youngest was born April 11, 1862.

August 27, 1862, Mr. Barber enlisted in the War as a soldier in Co. F., 26 Reg. Iowa Vol. September 2d the 26th Regt. was ordered into Camp Kirkwood at Clinton for drill. The night of the 11th he was on duty as guard, it rained very hard and he took cold which finally resulted in typhoid fever. He died Sunday at 1:25 p.m., October 26th, 1862. The three oldest children were married before his death.

July 19, 1864, I was married to Mr. Nelson Tripp of Jones Co. a Free-will Baptist. October 23d I left the old home for a time and went to Jones Co. to his home. In June 1870 he sold his property and bought in Marshall Co. near Liscomb. Mr. Tripp died March 11, 1877. At that time all my children were married except the two youngest. At this time I lived in Calamus and sent my youngest daughter to school. In June 1879 she was married and I was then left alone.

March 9, 1880, I married Mr. James Johnson, a local M.E. preacher. In July he took me to my daughter's kept me there and the next week advertised me as leaving him, telling people not to trust me. From that time until now, April 20, 1884, I have lived alone with Jesus. The reason Mr. Johnson refused to live with me was I would not let him contract my property away from my children. To be revenged on me he went and joined the Joe Smith Mormons. After awhile he wanted me to live with him, I told him no, never. He then applied for a divorce and all the plea I sent in was that my name be returned to Tripp, which was granted at the September term of Court.

at Clinton of Sept. 15, 1884, I was lawfully divorced. March 14, 1889, he died in Crawford Co. at his daughter's. Now I am a widow indeed, living with my children all the time since he took me to J. B. Harris'.

If I never should pen any more this is to April 20, 1884.

IN ADDITION TO THE SKETCH WRITTEN FIVE YEARS AGO

Some thoughts that intervene in the past 4 years and 10 months.

After a lapse of time I again take up the pen to write the balance of the narrative of our home. When I stopped the sketch was in the West; in September 1884 all the children except Horace was in the West, I came with them.

Four years ago, Horace my youngest son came West and settled in Woodbury, Co., three of my children are near Paullina, O'Brien Co., two in Clay Co. and 3 boys in Woodbury Co. I have 4 sons and 4 daughters, thirty grand children and three great grand-children.

Of my Father's family, only 4 are left, two sons and two daughters, my oldest brother Horace will be 60 years old April 14, 1892, Joseph will be 53 in April, Lizzie the youngest sister will be 56 April 30, 1892. I am the oldest of 10 children, my age is 71, February 23.

I set my name to this at the age of 71 years.

Mrs. Mary F. Tripp
Paullina, O'Brien Co. Iowa, February 23, 1892.

I have made these excerpts from the printed manuscript now in the possession of Mrs. Rose Lyle Jordan Barber.

HISTORY OF JUDSON FAMILY

From History of "Ancient Woodbury, Conn."

Vol. 1st., Page 587, by W.C. Cothren

William Judson first, came from Yorkshire, England in 1634 with his family. He brought with him, three sons, VIZ. 2 Joseph(2), (3) Jeremiah (2), and (4) Joshua (2). He lived four years at Concord, Mass., and removed thence to Stratford, Conn., at its first settlement in 1639, where he resided upon the South West corner of a hill called "Settling House Hill." He did not reside there long, but went to New Haven where he died in 1660. He probably had a daughter living there.

²
Lieut. Joseph (2) eldest son of William was fifteen years of age when his father came to New England. He lived with him at Concord, Mass., four years, removed thence to Stratford, Conn., married in 1644 in his 25th year, Sarah, daughter of John Porter of Winstor, she being 18 years of age. He was leading man in the early days of the Colony being frequently called to sustain the duties of Public Office. He died Oct. 9, 1690. He was buried in Stratford. His widow died March 16, 1696: children as follows:

- I. Sarah, born March 2, 1645, married Edward Howell of South-
L.I. in 1644 hampton,

ford.
- IV. Grace, born Feb. 19, 1651, Married Samuel Pruden of Milford.

THE HISTORY OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON
FROM 1630 TO 1800

The history of the city of Boston from 1630 to 1800 is a story of growth and change. It begins with the arrival of the first settlers in 1630, who founded the city as a haven for Puritans seeking religious freedom. Over the years, Boston grew from a small village into a major center of commerce and industry. The city played a key role in the American Revolution, and its history is marked by significant events such as the Boston Tea Party and the Battle of Bunker Hill. By 1800, Boston had become one of the most important cities in the young nation.

The city's growth continued into the 19th century, as it became a major center of manufacturing and trade. The Boston Harbor was a vital link to the rest of the world, and the city's economy flourished. However, the city also faced challenges, such as overcrowding and pollution. Despite these challenges, Boston remained a city of innovation and progress, and its history continues to shape the city today.

The city's history is a testament to the resilience and spirit of its people. From its humble beginnings as a small village, Boston has grown into a major world city. Its history is a story of triumph and adversity, and it is a story that continues to inspire and educate us today.
